■ Started using new systems for vehicle inspections in order to find defects that are not readily visible

Underbody imaging system

This system is used to inspect underneath vehicles, including tires and wheels. A specialized unit takes pictures that allow finding tiny scratches, dents and other external defects under a vehicle and sides of tires & wheels that are overlooked by a conventional visual inspection. Currently USS is introducing more imaging systems for the Nagoya Auction Site and other locations to expand the use of the underbody imaging system.

Inspections using on-board diagnostic system scans

USS has become the first auto auction company to use on-board diagnostic system scanners for vehicle inspections. These inspections cover brakes, engines, safety devices and other components. Auction sites use a special section for the sale of vehicles that pass this inspection.

Auto Auction Segment - DX initiatives (2)

■ Started work on the digitalization of the auction sheet (entry form). Commenced test operations at the Nagoya and other sites with the aim of launching full-scale operations by the close of the fiscal year ending in March 2022.
Digitization will lead to more efficient auction operations, improve member convenience and expand the range of its applications.

Now

Members write vehicle information on a paper auction sheet and submit it to USS.
$\rightarrow$ A USS inspector inspects the vehicle and writes the evaluation by hand on the auction sheet.

Introduction of digital entry sheet

The member willing to consign a vehicle reads a QR code on the vehicle inspection certificate from a dedicated website, vehicle information can be easily digitized.

The vehicle information will be reflected on the USS inspector's inspection tablet, and the inspector will then enter* the inspection results on the tablet.

Automobile Market and USS Revenue

■ The number of vehicles consigned is correlated through trade-ins to (1) New car registrations and (2) Used car registrations

- Total demand comprises domestic demand (2) and overseas demand (3). In recent years, total demand has been driven mainly by overseas demand.
- In addition to the above, share of the used car auction market and contract ratio have an important bearing on USS auto auction profits.

New/Used Car Registrations and Auto Auction Market

■ The auction market continued to expand till 2000 as the share of used vehicles sold through the auction market increased as a share of the total used vehicle market. Starting in the mid-2000s, older vehicles and vehicles with high mileage which would normally have been scrapped started flowing into auto auction sites and steadily drove up the number of vehicles consigned.
■ After the financial crisis of late 2008 the auto auction market was largely correlated to new car registrations (supply) and exports (demand).
